FEATURED JOB OPENING: Live Onsite Caretakers for Recreational Property - Mission, BC

Posted: 9/9/2023

The Sons of Norway is an international not-for-profit organization. We are dedicated to preserve and promote Norwegian heritage, culture and tradition. Our local lodge, Sleipner #8, is looking for a qualified caretaker couple or team for our recreational property.

Position Overview

This position involves year-round general management and upkeep of our rural cottage and camping community near Mission BC. The caretakers will also be regularly interacting directly with members and guests.

About You

You are a great team that has excellent people skills and enjoys working outdoors. You have good judgement and can solve problems independently. If you are looking for a fun, challenging, and engaging work environment, this may be a great opportunity for you.

Key Responsibilities

- General upkeep and cleanliness of property
- Landscaping and gardening
- Seasonal maintenance of pool
- Minor repairs to buildings and equipment
- Regular testing and maintenance of the water pump, filtration system and water lines
- Manage campsite bookings and accept payments
- Greet RV guests on check-in
- Manage petty cash and purchase supplies for park
- Provide leadership to sub-contractors, volunteers, and summer students
- Report and address safety concerns
- Preform evening closing/shutdown
- Provide information to members accessing sites
- Ability to respond to emergencies
- Create an atmosphere which reflects the goals and values of Sleipner Lodge #8
- Other duties as required
